

Elefante Music & School for the Performing Arts

Private Dance Lessons with Dance Instructor Laura Chaneski

- ➡ Do you have an upcoming dance audition for your school play or for a local community theater?
- ➡ Are you currently enrolled in group dance classes, but would like to add one-on-one instruction to your training schedule?
- ➡ Are you too busy to attend a regular weekly dance class, but need to hone your technique to take your dance training to the next level with classes that fit your schedule?
- ➡ Are you an adult who would like to begin or resume dance training for performance, fun, or fitness?
- ➡ Are you a professional dancer who needs to prepare for a role or audition?
- ➡ Or maybe you're brand new to dance and would like an introduction to this amazing art form that builds grace, balance, coordination, self-confidence, interpersonal communication, and the joy of using the body to tell a story.

➡ The solution: One-on-one dance lessons with a top professional dance instructor!

Laura Chaneski obtained a double B.A. in Dance and Sociology from Rutgers University. Some of her favorite professional theater credits include Singin' in the Rain (Kathy) with the Ocean City Theater Company, White Christmas (Rita) at SurfFlight Theater, Footloose (Ariel) at Bucks County Playhouse, and Nunsensations (Sister Leo) at Off-Broadstreet Theater.

Her television appearances include Law & Order: SVU, Do No Harm and over 50 commercials.

Laura has been a dance educator of students ages 2-adult for the past ten years and has choreographed musicals for Kids In Production, Inc., the Livingston Theater Company, and for many NJ high school musicals. For more, visit www.laurachaneski.com.

Email Karen@elefantemusic.com to schedule a lesson (or several) with Laura!