

Elefante Music & School for the Performing Arts

Private Dance or Acting Lessons with Instructor Laura Chaneski

- ⇒ Do you have an upcoming dance or acting audition for your school play or for a local community theater?
- ⇒ Are you currently enrolled in group dance or acting classes, but would like to add one-on-one instruction to your training schedule?
- ⇒ Are you too busy to attend a regular weekly dance or acting class, but need to hone your technique to take your dance or acting training to the next level with classes that fit your schedule?
- ⇒ Are you an adult who would like to begin or resume dance or acting training for performance, fun, or fitness?
- ⇒ Are you a professional dancer or actor who needs to prepare for a role or audition?
- ⇒ Or maybe you're brand new to dance or acting, and would like an introduction to either of these amazing art forms.

⇒ The solution: One-on-one dance lessons with a top professional dance instructor!

Laura Chaneski obtained a double B.A. in Dance and Sociology from Rutgers University. As a proud member of SAG-AFTRA and Actors' Equity, her favorite credits include Singin' in the Rain (Kathy) with the Ocean City Theater Company, White Christmas (Rita) at SurfFlight Theater, Greetings (Randi) at Off-Broadstreet Theater and White Guy on the Bus (Molly) at Passage Theater. She has worked with Centenary Stage Company, Dreamcatcher Repertory Theater, Luna Stage, Bickford Theater, Writers Theater of NJ and East Lynne Theater Company. Her television appearances include Law & Order: SVU, House of Cards, YOU, Do No Harm and over 50 commercials.

Laura has been teaching dance and acting for students age 2 through adult at studios throughout NJ for the past 15 years. Laura's recent choreography work includes The Little Mermaid and Oklahoma! at Madison High School and Chicago at Governor Livingston High School. For more, visit www.laurachaneski.com.

Email Karen@elefantemusic.com to schedule a lesson (or several) with Laura!