

Code of Conduct

Elefante Music & School for the Performing Arts requires that all students comply with our Code of Conduct. We reserve the right to remove from lessons, classes, camps, or similar activities any student who does not comply with the Code of Conduct and/or presents a substantial disruption to the delivery of instruction or to the educational environment.

To comply with the Code of Conduct, all students will agree to:

- Create a safe space free from bullying, name-calling, or discrimination.
- Show respect for and maintain a positive attitude toward classmates and instructor(s) at all times.
- Comport themselves according to instructor rules of safety, attention, and behavior.
- Act with honesty and personal integrity.
- Refrain from handling items or equipment in the classroom, according to instructor rules.
- Share ideas with others, accept the ideas of others, and work as a team.
- Use appropriate language.
- Refrain from any form of verbal and/or physical altercations.
- Respect the personal space and physical boundaries of others.
- Meet attendance and punctuality expectations.
- Refrain from use of electronic devices during class time.
- Refrain from any social media/posting of classmates or class activities.
- Fully disallow any illegal substances such as alcohol or narcotics.
